Respondent.*

RULING ON ENTITLEMENT¹

On March 26, 2019, Michelle A. Miller filed a petition for compensation under the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program, 42 U.S.C. §300aa-10, *et seq.*² (the “Vaccine Act”). Petitioner alleges that she suffered “left shoulder impingement syndrome” and “Glenohumeral Internal Rotation Deficit” that was caused-in-fact by an influenza (“flu”) vaccine that was administered on October 3, 2016. Petition at 1. The case was assigned to the Special Processing Unit of the Office of Special Masters.

On January 21, 2021, Respondent filed his Rule 4(c) report in which he concedes that Petitioner is entitled to compensation in this case. Respondent’s Rule 4(c) Report at

² National Childhood Vaccine Injury Act of 1986, Pub. L. No. 99-660, 100 Stat. 3755. Hereinafter, for ease of citation, all “§” references to the Vaccine Act will be to the pertinent subparagraph of 42 U.S.C. § 300aa (2012).

1. Specifically, Respondent states that “[P]etitioner’s alleged injury is consistent with a SIRVA [shoulder injury related to vaccine administration], as defined on the Vaccine Injury Table.” Id. at 4. Respondent further agrees that Petitioner suffered the residual effects of her injury for more than six months. Id.

In view of Respondent’s position and the evidence of record, I find that Petitioner is entitled to compensation.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
